Syracuse Public Arts identifies and initiates quality public art projects and events that work to promote a creative culture and shared identity in Syracuse. We are artists, community leaders and volunteers. Join us.

Current Projects

LIPE ART PARK: Syracuse's First Sculpture Park

Lipe Art Park will be a sculpture park and community space for creative expression in the Warehouse District, along the railroad tracks on West Fayette Street. Adapt CNY is partnering to clean up and landscape the park. Artist interested in loaning work for a May installation, future exhibits, and volunteers interested in helping to organize events should contact lipeartpark@gmail.com

FLOATING GALLERIES: Vacant Storefront Art Galleries

Floating Galleries transforms vacant storefronts into 24/7 galleries that give local artists an opportunity to exhibit their work, while fostering economic development by drawing attention to available retail space. If interested, please email floatinggalleriessyracuse@gmail.com

TOTEM PROJECT: Unique Sculptures that sleeve over parking meter posts.

Last fall we applied for and won a grant to continue Downtown TNT's Totem Project which transforms defunct parking meter posts into totems. Thanks to the support of the Gifford Foundation we are able to offer artists $400 per totem. If you are interested in submitting a Totem, please email syracusepublicarts@gmail.com

SYRACUSE DIGITAL PUBLIC ART TRAIL: An Interactive Map

With the use of Geographic Information Systems online viewers will be able to zoom in and out of neighborhoods and search art work by artist, type, date, or area. If interested in photographing, or researching public art in Syracuse, please email syracusepublicarts@gmail.com

THE URBAN VIDEO PROJECT (UVP): Public Projections

The Urban Video Project is a public arts initiative seeking to bring video art to the streets and buildings of Syracuse. UVP will produce a series of experimental outdoor video projections throughout the year and on each TH3. If interested, please email urban.video.project@gmail.com

ADOPT ART: Connecting Businesses and Artist to Sponsor

THE GREATER SYRACUSE OPEN STUDIOS 2008 Promoting Local Artists and Studios

These two projects are in their initial planning phases. Groups will be forming soon. If interested, please email syracusepublicarts@gmail.com
